

Three Rivers Legal Services: How to Access Free Legal Help for Loved Ones with Disabilities

About the Presenter

Wendy West is an attorney at the Lake City office of Three Rivers Legal Services. Beginning nearly 50 years ago in Gainesville as Storefront Legal Aid, Three Rivers Legal Services has expanded to serve 17 counties in Florida. The non-profit organization braids many funding sources and the expertise of collaborative partners, licensed attorneys, and law students to offer high quality legal advice and support to families with loved ones who have disabilities.

Training Description

Ms. West will offer insight into the nuances of special education law in Florida. She will also provide information on the services available through Three Rivers Legal Services and explain how to access them.

Target Audience

Families, caregivers, and professionals who support adults and children with disabilities.
